Abstract

This research aims to 1) study the natural attractions in the form of conservation , 2) to study the problems and difficulties that arise with tourists on the eco-tourism , 3) to study the development of tourist destinations to be. eco-tourism in the province . Research has processed data is the percentage to study the development of local tourism . Case study conservation area attractions . By the collection and analysis of data for a period of one year .

The results showed that Tourists reviews for the sources listed on the characteristics of the factors associated with 5 stories : 1) social, 2) the economy 3) the environment. 4) the promotion . 5) culture. Found that most travelers agree on the values of the local community is the development of infrastructure such as electricity, water, communication etc.